

- 1 The buses were parked in the street.
- 2 They couldn't find their matches.
- 3 The factories had all closed down and no smoke came from their chimneys.
- 4 My parents have moved to London.
- 5 Why don't you keep your dogs on a leash?
- 6 I've had enough of your stories.
- 7 Her eyes were blue.
- 8 The two boys had never seen their father cry.
- 9 Where are the oranges?
- 10 The heroes returned from the match in France.
- 11 He chased the flies with a rolled-up newspaper.
- 12 My sisters-in-law have invited me to dinner.
- 13 The number of hold-ups increases every year.
- 14 There are only a few wolves left in Sweden.
- 15 Once Rome was saved by its many watchful geese.
- 16 The roofs were covered with red tiles.
- 17 The calves were grazing in the meadow.
- 18 How many people were there at the match?
- 19 Some of the peoples in Africa speak French.
- 20 Will you please hand me the binoculars.
- 21 The customs were very thorough.
- 22 You go up the stairs and it's on the left.
- 23 Let's shake hands and be friends.
- 24 I asked if I could change places with him.
- 25 Somebody had chased our sheep across the common.
- 26 The Japanese are very good at making cars.
- 27 Where is my money? It is here.
- 28 The news has just begun.
- 29 He has no knowledge of German.
- 30 Could you please give me some advice/a piece of advice?